

Second Peter 2:10b-16

Will God judge the sin or the sinner?

The Judgment of Angels
The Judgment of the Entire World
The Judgment of Sodom and Gomorrah

If God judged angels, entire cities, and even the world, you can rest assured that God will certainly judge the false teachers. The past judgments of sinners by God and His rescuing of the righteous, point to an ultimate day of judgment for sinners and salvation for the righteous.

2 Peter 10b-16

Jude 1:8-10

Daniel 10:10-14

Acts 19:13-16

Ephesians 6:12

---

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Lack of shame for sin is the opposite of confessing and repenting of sin.

Psalms 139:11-12

---

If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me,
and the light about me be night,"
even the darkness is not dark to you;
the night is bright as the day,
for darkness is as light with you.

Those who do not believe like Christians or behave like Christians by living under the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, are not Christians.

1 Corinthians 5:9-13

Is the modern church too welcoming?

In fear of being called judgmental, has it left no room for proper judgment?

Job 31:1

---

"I have made a covenant with my eyes;
how then could I gaze at a virgin?"

Job understood that adultery does not begin with the physical act, but starts with the eyes.

Men, if Peter was to watch through your eyes, what would he see?

Or even more condemning, what about God?

Matthew 5:27-28

---

"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

False teachers are never content to just believe the wrong thing.
They use their position of authority to entice others to join them.

Numbers 22:15-35
